

Unwoken Dream (King With Everything)

Justin Nozuka

There is a King who lives on the top of the hill
There is a king who had everything
Led by a star, the light in the sky
He can't see it

There is a man who lives by the river
He is a man surrounded by light
She is alone bathing in the river
He watches her

Diamond in the sky
Will she be mine
Lead her through the night
She is blind

Over the hill and beyond the river
Seven unwoken dreams are there
When she awakes she dreams more then ever
He dreams with her

Oooooooo

She is blind
