

Crystal Children

Justyna Steczkowska

we sail
from the world of brightness through the form which you want to see...

we live
flowing on sunny river
pure land without loneliness (chorus: loneliness)

(chorus: we alone...)

we feel
the breath of light
colorway of blackness

now my flight is painting the horizon which does not pass anymore

crystal children
they come...
with tide...

we are alive
do not be afraid
we are alon
thus we will find..
each other
