

Where Are You, Sophie?

Justyna Steczkowska

Where are you, Sofie?
Where are you, Sofie?

I've gone far
Met the moon

Asked her for you, Sofie...
Moon, have you seen Sofie?
My soulmate, and my queen
No my dear
Ask the sun

I've asked the Sun
And heard him say
Look and
You'll see Sophie
In all the love
You get
She is with you, she feels you...

sophie...
death means just a change of the worlds
