

Georgia Rain

Joshua Kadison

Intro:

F Eb B2 F

Verse 1:

F Bsus2b5 B2
When all my dreams are fallin' on stony ground
F Bsus2b5 B2
and I start wonderin' why I'm even around,
Gm Gm7 C2
can't find the sunshine anywhere,
Gm Gm7 C9 C2
Jessie puts her arms around me and runs her fingers through my hair.

Chorus:

F Am7 B2 F
And Jessie sings soft as the Georgia rain
B Am7 Gm7 F
coming down easy on a window pane.
F Am7 B2 C2 Dm7
And Jessie sings warm as a late night summer breeze
B Am7 Gm7 F
hummin' some faraway tune to the willow trees.
Gm7 C9 C2
And life is everything God meant it to be Gm7 C9 F
when Jessie's singing soft as the Georgia rain to me.

F Eb B2 F

Verse 2:

She calls me angel and says, Let me dry your eyes.
You mean by now you still don't realise that everything I want is what I got, so angel stop your thinkin' 'bout all the things you're not.

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Gm Gm7 C9 C2
There's a trailer by the sea down in Mexico.
Gm Gm7 C9 C2

We dreamt a lot about it but we never did go.

F Gm7 F Gm7 Am7 B2
Some dreams are better from afar, that's just how things are.
C2 B C2 Eb6sus2
And everything's all right 'cause Jessie's singing me to sleep tonight.
Eb6sus2 C2 F
Jessie's singing me to sleep tonight.

(Chorus)

Outro:

Gm7 C9 F
when Jessie's singing soft as the Georgia rain to me.

Eb B2 F
