You Want History

Kaiser Chiefs

Yesterday you lay awake on your bed And worked out you'd done everything that you said That you'd do before you got to this age The lord of the bored and a slave to the beige

It's a mystery
It's a mystery
You want some history
It's a mystery

So last night you got up and out of this room The ceiling is peeling and covered in gloom But jaguar shoes is a place you can stare A procession of lessons in what not to wear

It's a mystery
It's a mystery
You want some history
It's a mystery

It's a waste of money you have to admit
If it's a waste of money you have to have it
It's a waste of brains but hard to resist
If you wanted mystery you've blown it

It's a waste of money you have to admit
If it's a waste of money you have to have it
It's a waste of brains but hard to resist
If you wanted history you missed it

If the girls start moving the boys will start moving If the girls start moving the boys will join in
