KAMIJO

Haven't seen you for a long time
Look at you, such a classy gente
You have created this amazing world
To meet your own values and plans

Love is what the humans breathe upon
Just like the air, it's essential for them
Share the feeling of love and make their day
For a brighter future to come

Nothing in your past is changeable
Just like the air, it's essential for you
Some have sucked on the blood, and lived in the dark
It ushers you in what I plan

You made these plans for your own dead set world
Even though it's not right for the alive
You will make them all believe it's based on love
Not based on lust - Excellent!
