Dreamer

Bring in the dancers Bring in the clowns Bring in the magic in the air now Sing you a song I'm calling all dreamers Won't you ever wake up my sweetheart My sweetheart One out of a million became one out of three One out of thousands in the world became one heart of me And if you ever leave me i hope i i'll never wake up Sweetheart Sweetheart My sweetheart Whoehoehoehoe It's a crazy world everything changes but our lives forever sei ze Whoehoehoehoe It's a crazy world So bring in the dancers Bring in the clowns Bring in the magic in the air around you Give me your smile And i'm calling you a dreamer And don't you and don't you ever wake up no my sweetheart My sweetheart Sweetheart Sweetheart
