

Hands

Kane

Hey, hey, yeah
Oh, no, no, no, no, no, no

I saw you, you stood there
I've seen you right there from the start
With every heartbeat closer
I've seen you right there, where you are

And it could have been so fine, yeah, yeah
Oh, it could have been so fine, yeah, yeah

My question, unspoken
I want your heart, I want your soul
With every heartbeat closer, I want you
Baby, could you give it to me now?

And it could have been so fine, yeah, yeah
Oh, it could have been so fine, yeah

So let me fall into your hands
Take me far away
I am calling for your hands
Eh, hey, yeah, oh yeah, waitin'

So talk to me, say, you want this, yeah
I want your body next to mine
With every heartbeat closer, I want you
Baby, could you give it to me now?

And it could have been so fine, yeah, yeah
Oh, it could have been so fine, yeah, yeah, yeah

Let me fall into your hands
Take me far away
I am calling for your hands, oh

And let me fall into your hands
Take me far away
I am calling for your hands
So let me fall into your hands, yeah, yeah

So let me fall into your hands
Ah, take me far away
I am calling for your hand, yeah

Let me fall into your hands
Take me far away
I am calling for your hand

Woah, put me there
Fall into your hands, let me fall into your hands
I'm calling, calling, calling, calling
Yeah, yeah, yeah
