

Our Hearts Will Beat As One

Kane

From this day on, I will be there for you
From this day on, the crosses that I'll bear I will now bare for you

From this day on, the choices that I'll make are the choices for our unborn children's lives Oh oh, oh..for the day has come
When our hearts will beat as one

From this day on, my life will never part From what I see in you

From this day on, vows taken from the heart
I will be here for you

From this day on, these promises I make we're the fathers of our unborn children's lives

Oh oh, oh..for the day has come

From this day on, your life won't be the same cause I'm here for you So take it all, take everything I own cause it's here for you

From this day on, our blood will never part we're the mothers of our unborn children's lives

Oh oh, oh..for the day has come

From this day on, your life won't show a sign of what they've done to you From this day on, forgiveness springs from blame and it's here for you

From this day on, our lives will never part it's the promise to our unborn children's lives

Oh oh, oh..for the day has come
When our hearts will beat as one
