

Point Blank

Kane

I heard a message on my radio
Lights out
The weight fell down & low
For what it seems
Is new to me

They say it moves across the borderline
With a face off
And a heart so hard to find
And what it seems
Is new to me

Looking for a miracle
I'm looking for a heartbeat in the sky
Looking for a miracle

So it rages like a hurricane
And when it calms down
Still that heart is hard to find
But what it feeds
Is new to me

She said I'll meet you on the other side
And at point blank
It was the day I nearly died
Now mercy please
Show dignity

Looking for a miracle
I'm looking for a heartbeat in the sky
Looking for a miracle
Deep down
A miracle tonight

Thought you were a part of me
I thought you would walk this life with me
Looking for a miracle
