

Dear Lord, make it alright, nothing else ever feels right
Dear Lord, make it alright, nothing else ever feels right
Nah, nah, nah, nothing else ever feels right

Exhausted, never been the right time to go
Gotta get the right time to go
Never the right time to go
You gotta choose your steps
Gotta make a right before you left
Gotta make a right before you-
Everybody wanna feel like
Everything gon be right
New me over the old me
Let it out, let it all out
God, please set it alright
Make it right, let it feel right
Nothing else ever feels right
Nothing else ever feels right

Save me, yeah, make it alright
Bow heads 'cause it's alright, alright, mm
Twenty-four hours, twenty-four candles, twenty-four hours
Dear God, make it alright, only you can make it alright
Dear Lord, make it alright, nothing else ever feels right
Dear God, make it alright, nothing else ever feels right
Na, na, na, nothing else ever feels right
Save me, yeah, make it alright
Bow heads 'cause it's alright, alright, mm
Twenty-four hours, twenty-four candles, twenty-four hours
Ah, yeah, yeah
Yeah-yeah, yeah
Throw our hands up in the sky, yes, Lord, we put 'em high

We only one breath away
We only one breath away, you know we gon' be okay (Yeah)
Know you alive and God's not finished
Know you alive and God's not finished
I know you alive and God's not finished
I know you alive and God's not finished
The Devil's a lie and now he finished
The Devil's a lie and now he finished
The Devil's a lie and now he finished
The Devil's a lie and now he finished
Be okay
I know you don't wanna be here some times

We gonna be okay, we gonna be okay (Ooh)
We gonna be okay, we gonna be okay (Ooh)
We gonna be okay, we gonna be okay
We gonna be okay, we gonna be okay
We gonna be okay, we gonna be okay (Ooh)
