Guess I Just Lost My Head

Karen Carpenter

I really don't mean to stare I was only trying to memorise you there You know I meant no harm It's just that the starlight in your eye Gave me a chill, nearly made me cry

I'm sure it's very clear I don't know what's going down You're going to ruin this poor girl from out of town I like the way you move so much that

I guess I just lost my head I know we should really know much better I guess I just lost my head I know we don't really know each other So pardon the things I said Won't you tell me you'll forgive me?

I don't mean to intrude It's just that I don't want to break this mood (Don't want to break this mood here tonight) And if I hold your hand it's just 'cause There's something in the things you say That wraps me up and really puts me away

But everybody knows I don't know what's going down You're going to ruin this poor girl from out of town I like the way you move so much that

I guess I just lost my head I know we should really know much better I guess I just lost my head I know we don't really know each other So pardon the things I said Won't you tell me you'll forgive me?

I don't know what's going down You're going to ruin this poor girl from out of town I like the way you move so much that

I guess I just lost my head I know we should really know much better I guess I just lost my head I know we don't really know each other So pardon the things I said Won't you tell me you'll forgive me?

I've got the feeling inside and I love you I need your loving tonight

Guess I lost it Guess I lost it

I guess I just lost my head I know we should really know much better I guess I just lost my head I know we don't really know each other So pardon the things I said Won't you tell me you'll forgive me? 'Cause you've been making me crazy
