Kari Kimmel

You're like a fine wine
You're only getting better
You are sublime
Every bit of you I treasure
Nothing compares to you
Nothing compares to you

You're like poetry
So beautiful and lovely
You're the best thing I've ever seen
Don't wanna blink
Oh nothing compares to you
Nothing compares to you

Oh, you're bursting with color
And you're unlike any other
The world will discover
You're beautiful, you're beautiful
You come in roaring like thunder
Your light, it shines like no other
The world will discover
You're beautiful, you're beautiful
You're beautiful

You're outta this world
Every day I'm more amazed by you
My heart burns
Every time you walk in the room
Oh nothing compares to you
Oh nothing compares to you, you

Oh, you're bursting with color
And you're unlike any other
The world will discover
You're beautiful, you're beautiful
You come in roaring like thunder
Your light, it shines like no other
The world will discover
You're beautiful, you're beautiful
You're beautiful
Oh, you're beautiful
You're beautiful

Oh, you're bursting with color
And you're unlike any other
The world will discover
You're beautiful, you're beautiful
You come in roaring like thunder
Your light, it shines like no other
The world will discover
You're beautiful, you're beautiful
You're beautiful
