

Seattle

Kari Kimmel

You took a plane to seattle
But I'm still here is LA
Can't stop thinking about you
Hope you're feeling the same
There's no doubt in my mind now
Don't want to spend one more day
Without you kissing me baby
So I'm making a change

What am I doing
You only left yesterday
Now I'm leaving the sunshine
To be with you in the rain
No I haven't been drinking
Well maybe one glass of wine
Oh I'm leaving the good life
To where the sun never shines

I want to hear you sing to me
Just like the man in the moon
Yeah I'll be smiling forever
As long as I'm there with you
No I won't waste a moment
I'm going to be there tonight
Taking nothing but good love
I'll leave everything else behind

Well what am I doing
Now I'm leaving the sunshine
To be with you in the rain
No I haven't been drinking
Well maybe one glass of wine
Oh I'm leaving the good life
To where the sun never shines

The way that you call me baby
You really drive me insane
I'm on a plane to seattle
Yeah I'm leaving LA

What am I doing
Now I'm leaving the sunshine
To be with you in the rain
No I haven't been drinking
Well maybe one glass of wine
Oh I'm leaving the good life
To where the sun never shines

The way that you call me baby
You really drive me insane
I'm on a plane to seattle
Yeah I'm leaving LA

The way that you call me baby
You really drive me insane

I'm on a plane to seattle
Yeah I'm leaving LA
