

The Last Goodbye

Kari Kimmel

Last goodbye
Said your last goodbye

I'm so tired of given in
Everytime you change your mind
It's another circle that we're going in
I'm so frustating, I'm about to break
And you don't have the finest idea
Of what it's doing, doing to me

I'm taking all the town and made it my world, no longer prisoner
To which all the way the wind blows up
I'm no longer gonna be that girl
Now I'm doing what's best for me, yeah

I'm not gonna wait here alone
For you to decide
If you're gonna stay forever or give up
Cause this is the last time
You seeing me cry
Baby, tonight
You said your very last goodbye
You said you're last goodbye, you're last goodbye
You said you're last goodbye, yeah

I gotta protect who I am inside
Cause I'm the only who know
I'm sure ain't easy but I know it's right

I'm taking all the town and made it my world, [?] choice I made
I'm gonna make a [?] and say
I'm no longer gonna that girl
Cause, baby, this is what's best for me, yeah

I'm not gonna wait here alone
For you to decide
If you're gonna stay forever or give up
Cause this is the last time
You seeing me cry
Baby, tonight
You said your very last goodbye

Walking [?] even tough it hurts me
I hate it but it's gotta be this way
I guess I thought that this would happen someday
Finally letting it go, doing what's best for me, yeah, yeah

I'm not gonna wait here alone
For you to decide
If you're gonna stay forever or give up
Cause this is the last time
You seeing me cry
Baby, tonight
You said your very last goodbye
You said you're last goodbye, you're last goodbye
You're last goodbye, yeah
