

Lucy's Heart

Karin Park

So you gave it all up for feelings
Just to walk in the snow with her
I must say I'm very disappointed in you
But what can I do
So I'm standing here all alone now
With all the others you left behind
And I will tell you to think again next time
'cause you're never satisfied

But Lucy's heart is gonna break some how
And she will give away the songs that she has made for you
Lucy's steps will melt away and there'll be silence where
The songs has been that she made for you

I don't know if I hurt your feelings
When I say she's too young for you
Can't stop wondering what you'd think if you knew
That I'm in love to
