

Opium

Karin Park

I jump with my arms out
I haven't got a shelter, babe
I haven't got a flag to wave
Tripping on your charm
And I fall so f*cking hard for you
I didn't want to let you in
Too close to my heart
But I will go with you
Right on out to sea
Right out to the deep end
I recognize the danger in you
Breaking as we dream
If this love is a treason
I don't care if I survive

You're my opium
Damn, it's so warm
Pictures of you everywhere
I don't care where you have been
Now you're running through my veins
(I'll go with you)
Right on out to sea
Right out to the deep end
I recognize the danger in you
Breaking as we dream
If this love is a treason
I don't care if I survive
You're my opium
