

You & I

Karin Park

Take my lips, take my hips
Take the air that I breathe
Take all you need from my life now
Take me where you want me
Knock me down in this one last round
Watch me fall in your arms
I am not afraid of a punch now
Take me if you need me

You and I, 'til the end of time
Apocalypse, say you love me

Different place in a different mind
To a different sound
In a different kind of universe
That is where you take me
Hold me up, it's enough
Rather sooner than later

I tend to leave things behind
Now, leave it all to see through

You and I, 'til the end of time
Apocalypse, say you love me

And to the greatest sound of all
I'm gonna watch the walls, I'm gonna watch them fall
We're gonna say to all of them
That we're not what they thought
And we're not the same, we have no chance
We don't want to learn, we're here to dance
They don't have what we need
And if it's not enough, no we cannot believe
You and I
