

Fall in Love Again

Karina

I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall in love again
I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall in love again
Put away your pride, and I'll set mine aside
Rules are getting old, for my on good abide
So I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall in love again

Cause I remember sneaking late nights on the phone
To hear your voice before I fall asleep
And I remember when you drew that picture of a globe on my hand
Cause you said you mean the world to me
What ever happened to the times you and I used to be so in love
With our heads in the clouds
Yeah, I just wanna feel that way again, someday
Baby I-I-I

Chorus:

I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall in love again
I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall in love again
Put away your pride, and I'll set mine aside
Rules are getting old, for my on good abide
So I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall in love again

Don't get m wrong, I know that we got history
But that just ain't enough for me
Cause I'm feeling like you're taking me for granted
And you're about to ruin everything
I'll always love you, and I'll do anything for you
But I still gotta be honest to myself
Hope you're listening,
I just hope that we could get back to where we were Baby

Chorus:

I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall in love again
I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall in love again
Put away your Wride, and I'll set mine aside
Rules are getting old, for my on good abide
So I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall in love again

I just wanna fall in love
I just wanna fall in love
I just wanna fall in love
I just wanna fall in love again
I just wanna fall in love
I just wanna fall in love
I just wanna fall in love
I just wanna fall in love again

I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall in love again
I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall in love again
Put away your pride, and I'll set mine aside
Rules are getting old, for my on good abide
So I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall, I just wanna fall in love again
I just wanna fall in love again
I just wanna fall
I just wanna fall
Fall in love, fall in love
I just wanna fall
