

Dream

Karla Bonoff

The whole world's blue
And nothing ever goes right
Words sound untrue
But you won't give up the fight
Turn your back now
To all those things that you've seen
Close your eyes
Now baby, dream

Well, they see you
Playing real good at the game
If they saw through
All there'd be is the pain
A reward's due
For one who is lost in the rain
Close your eyes
Now baby, dream

When you held me, I was so broken apart
I had nothing but that love in your heart
And the night came, all I heard was you saying
Close your eyes
Now baby,
dream
Close your eyes
Now baby,
dream
