

I Don't Want To Miss You

Karla Bonoff

Oh honey, let's draw the line
'Cause I know you can't really be mine
I can see it's your own heart you need to find, not mine
And lately, I can see it won't turn out the way we Want it to be
We should forget it, and not regret it
Oh no honey, don't tempt me

'Cause I don't want to miss you
I don't want to kiss you
Or hear the sweet things that you say
Don't want to know what I'm missing
I Don't want to listen
Just want to watch you walking away

I remember you and I
And we looked into each other's eyes
We could make the long, long night just fly right by
But love's illusions don't seem to last
Maybe we just moved too fast
So please don't call me
Don't speak softly
Oh no honey, don't tempt me

Even though I know this is right
Can't stop dreaming about you at night
With or without you, it's still a fight every night
And me, I didn't know the way your heart could grow
So cold
But me, I'd let go, let my love show
Oh on honey, don't tempt me
