Stupid simple mind games, pushing 'til I'm insane
Working through the day and night
Strutting with my headphones, no one knows what I know
Got no time to be polite
And the world says, "baby don't worry, baby don't worry at all"
Roller coaster seat belt, motion sickness soft shell
Maybe I'm just not cut out

But I can feel it, no one can steal it They're gonna call my name Not gonna stop now, not gonna step down 'Cause I can hear 'em say

Take it away, take it away, take it away, yeah! (2x)

Leading with my right hand, can't afford the name brand Gotta give it all I got
Had a taste of lime light, sweet and sour just right
Now I can't escape the thought
And the world says, "baby don't worry, baby don't worry at all"
Praying running up hill, stage is my cathedral
Baby I can see the light

Bright flashes, full glasses

Now get up sing your song for the masses

Close both eyes, feel the sunrise

You thank God for the journey when you realize

Long nights mean nothing at all

Bright lights you can hear 'em call

Got my poster up on your wall?

We're in a storm now keep yourself calm

Stop - hit it - break - kill it

Anybody know the odds when I deal it?

Anybody get up the guts to play?

'Cause you only live once better live for the day
