

Weakness

Karyn White

Every little thing you do turns me on

Tried hard to resist
But I had to break down and kiss your inner lips
So good I want more
Cause you keep giving me chills all over

I'm filling up my Wednesday things
To try to keep my innocence
Right know I'm feeling like I can
The way you look at me so smooth
Oh baby, let me be with you
Cause every little thing you do
Turns me on and on and on

Baby, you're my weakness
You should have called it love
It's running full of sweetness
Too much is dangerous
I'll probably get addicted
I gotta be careful cause
Baby, you're my weakness

Making me so weak
Baby, you're my weakness
Love's so dangerous
And I never wanna end up with a broken heart
But you pique my desire
Cause every time you touch my body
I fantasize

I'm gonna make my Wednesday things
To try to keep my innocence
Right know I'm feeling like I can
The way you look at me so smooth
Oh baby let me be with you
Cause every little thing you do
Turns me on and on and on

Baby, you're my weakness
You should have caught your love
It's coming for his sweetness
Too much is dangerous
I'll probably get addicted
I gotta be careful cause
Baby, you're my weakness

Your that guy that makes me weak
Cause you got a special loving, so sweet
I'll probably get addicted
Baby, you're my weakness

I want you to know you make me weak
I want you to know you make me weak
I want you to know you make me weak
My weakness
Boy, your loving, baby, I'm so weak

Oh yes, I said your love is so good, oh baby
Yes, and your love is so good
You know your love is so sweet
Boy, you're making me weak
