

Gambler Does the Gambler

Kassidy

Well I remember everything summer that's gone,
Took what I remember just by bein' alone,
Give me a reason 'cos I can't decide,
You can take my soul can't take my ride,
I said whoa oh oh, where do we go, oh no, he flows,
And I say, whoa oh oh, where did we go oh no, he flows.

Spending all my money 'cos my mind's in doubt,
Rainy days are coming but there ain't no cloud,
Gambler does the gambler, I feel left out,
Spending makes a change, make a father proud,

Saying oh oh oh, where do we go, oh no, he flows,
And I say, oh oh oh, where did we go oh no, he flows.
And I don't mind what you find when later we talk,
And I don't mind what you find when later we talk.

Well I remember everything summer that's gone,
took what I remember just by being alone,
And I give myself a reason 'cos I can't decide,
You can take my soul can't take my ride,
I'm saying oh oh oh, where do we go oh no, he flows,
And I say, ho oh oh, where did we go oh no, he flows.

And I don't mind what you find when later we talk,
And I don't mind what you find when later we talk.

I remember everything summer that's gone,
Took what I remember just by being alone,
Give me a reason 'cos I can't decide,
You can take my soul, can't take my ride,
I'm saying oh oh oh, where do we go oh no, he flows,
And I say, wo oh oh, where do we go oh no, he flows.
