

Seriously

Katchafire

Seriously, its been a long time
Since I've heard from thee
Since you dropped me a line
Well I know
What you've been going through
And I know
What I've been telling you
Girl seriously give me another one
Wo yeah

I happen to know what's gonna happen next
The rhythm will pull you into this here jam
I reckon the rhythm just can't stop you moving
And everywhere you look people be dancing near - yeah

I don't drive no flashy car
I don't wear no flashy ring girl
You don't see me trying bling bling girl yeah
Give me another one...
