

Take It With You When You Go

Kathleen Edwards

I don't want this anymore
This thing
Heavy on my shoulders like the summer rain
I don't want it anymore
The hurt
That lives under the bed in the smell of your shirt

Take it with you when you go, so far
Take it with you when you go, go far
Take it with you when you go

I don't want it anymore
These thoughts
The seasons ahead that will not be ours, I don't want it anymore
Your words
Playing in my head like a broken record, I don't want it anymore
This picture
'Cause every hour is a day I couldn't feel stiller

Take it with you when you go, so far
Take it with you when you go, so far
Take it with you when you go

More?
Don't you feel it anymore?
Don't you say it anymore?
Don't you think it anymore?
Now I know I loved you more
'Cause love
You're just a picture in my wallet that I can't tear up

Take it with you when you go, so far
Take it with you when you go, so far
Take it with you when you go
Take it with you when you go
Take it with you when you go
Take it with you when you go
