

I Will Be

Katie Armiger

When you need someone, I'll be there
Holds you close, let you know I'll care
Be the one that dusts you off
Let's you know you are enough, honey
Curtain falls, the applause stops
Let's you down
I will stand up and make you see

I will be, I will be
Your strength when no one believes
I will be, I will be
Everything that you need
I will be

When you're down, down on you're knees
Giving up, giving in
Defeat has got the best of you
Your heart is broken, blue
When you laugh, when you cry
All the moment, all the good times
Of your life

I will be, I will be
Your strength when no one believes
I will be, I will be
Everything that you need
I will be

When you need someone, I'll be there
Holds you close, let you know I'll care

Oooh Oooh

I will be, I will be
Your strength when no one believes
I will be, I will be
Everything that you need
I will be
