

Insanity

Katie Armiger

It's my good it's my bad
It's my turn to make mistakes
It's my life it's my choice
It's my happiness at stake
So stop telling me how to be
And instead tell me...

You'll be there, even when I don't care
Loving me, but letting me be free
Through all this insanity
I need to know you would never leave me
Let me go

'Cause I'll fall on my face
In a state of disgrace
But you'll still love me
Through all this insanity

The life I choose may not be what you wanted for me
But I need time and I need space and I need room to breath
Because I've got to try
To break the binds
I've got to find
My own life, and...

You'll be there, even when I don't care
Loving me, but letting me be free
Through all this insanity
I need to know you would never leave me
Let me go

'Cause I'll fall on my face
In a state of disgrace
But you'll still love me
Through all this insanity

Don't be afraid to let go
Because I'll always come home

You'll be there, even when I don't care
Loving me, but letting me be free
Through all this insanity
I need to know you would never leave me
Let me go

'Cause I'll fall on my face
In a state of disgrace
But you'll still love me
Through all this insanity
