

I Got Nothing

Katy McAllister

I can see you think I have issued you a challenge
I'll keep it brief, you take what you think you can salvage
Try to behave, I said it's never gonna happen
No-oh-oh-ooh-ooh, no-oh-oh-ooh-ooh
I can see you're looking from a different perspective
Looking to me waiting for some type of reaction
Try to behave, I said it's never gonna happen
You don't know how you feel, you don't know how

I got nothing for you, oh-no-no
I got nothing for you, just let go
There ain't nothing for me here no more
Let me get it through
Let me get it through your head

I can see your body moving in my direction
Nodding your head, just waiting for an invitation
Just being honest, it's never gonna happen
You don't know how to deal, you don't know how

I got nothing for you, oh-no-no
I got nothing for you, just let go
There ain't nothing for me here no more
Let me get it through
Let me get it through your head

Nothing for you, nothing for you, oh no no
Nothing for you, nothing for you

Let me get into your head
Help me understand
What's it gonna take for me
To get it through your head

I got nothing for you, oh-no-no
I got nothing for you, just let go
There ain't nothing for me here no more
Let me get it through
Let me get it through your head

Let me get it through your head
Nothing for you, nothing for you
Let me get it through your head
You don't know how to deal, you don't know how
