

Worth Fighting For

Katy McAllister

The sky is turning golden now,
Wish you were with me now
My body aches for you
Feels empty since you've left
Is anybody left, that isn't broken?
Shattered, confused

It's not that I don't understand your side
It's just hard to contemplate why a love this deep goes unanswered
I'm going places in this life
And I want you by my side
Do you remember that night?

As you tell me goodbye,
I see that look in your eyes
I never wanted you to break down
We found a love in this cold world
Isn't that what life's about?
We can get away from this town

I know exactly how I hurt you
There's nothing left but the truth
We can change this life
One step at a time
I know there's so much more
Isn't that worth fighting for?
It's been so long, I'm growing
We've lost the only one who could fix me
Now it's me who's breaking down
I know you see me broken
But there's so much unspoken
Please give us hope
Cause I'll never let you go

It's not that I'm forgiving myself
It's just I'm going through hell
To try and think of words to save me
It's not so much that I am missing you
It's more like I'm so lost without you
I'd give anything for you to just take me

As you tell me goodbye
I see that look in your eyes
I never wanted you to break down
We found a love in this cold world
Isn't that what life's about?
We can get away from this town

I know exactly how I hurt you
There's nothing left but the truth
We can change this life
One step at a time

I know there's so much more
Isn't that worth fighting for?

Honestly tell, when you look at me

And don't remember everything
You're scared and thats okay
I'll show you there's a way
For us to truly be Something happy

As you tell me goodbye
I see that look in your eyes
I never wanted you to break down
We found a love in this cold world
Isn't that what life's about?
We can get away from this town

I know exactly how I hurt you
There's nothing left but the truth
We can change this life
One step at a time

I know there's so much more
Isn't that worth fighting for?
