

Gemini Girly Song

Katzenjammer Kabarett

My darling baby now let's go to bed but darling sounds like beloved instead mummy ignores the lurking dread sweet child of hers has twins in her head twins in her head, twins in her head " I have twins in my head"

The bed was tucked there's no one around wish i could move but my limbs are bound the night is so thick and sweet mommy's gone Afraid of the dark and the voices come.
The voices come (and my mommy's gone)

Dollies and puppets dance on the shelf Night-night me, night-night myself pictures, voices and thoughts in whirls Girlies kissing other girls and other girls

Silent moans: "O mommy please help me! kiss her no KILL HER! can't help this uneasy dolly mixture of feeling and shadows anger and joy tension and sorrow and everything blows

Gingerbread bogeymen, void wedding dresses dance in the trees giving cold kisses legion of shades walk by the window while winds blow the cries of weeping willows she's the one to know

Through the moonlit forest pale feet ran fast trying to escape from herself aghast the very last step was made to the river where lily-white dresses (will) float forever for ever and ever

Everything hastened in the fake roundabout poor Gemini girl she found no way out with lily white hands, the dead dollies took her and tied her to dreams for ever and ever

Gemini Girly came and said to me don't you be worried, i lie with dollies and they look after me just like sweet mommy used to care for me
used to care for me

And every fkkin night she comes in my sleep every fkkin night she comes in my sleep

Sweet Gemini Girly cries, Gemini Girly dies, Gemini Girly lies her lily white dress shines "deep deep down inside deep deep down inside the river and mind, the river and my mind down inside, river and my mind the river and... my mind"
