

Because I...

Kayak

A different state of mind
A blessing of some kind
Defying all laws, simply
Because I love you

The challenge looming large
I longed to be in charge
No time to pause, simply
Because I love you

So now I see when I agreed
I didn't know the why
And feeling like a different breed
I liked the lie
Petrified

A different state of mind
A blessing of some kind
Defying all laws, simply
Because I love you

So now I see when I agreed
I didn't know the why
And feeling like a different breed
I liked the lie
Petrified

The demons from the past
I conquered them last
Need no applause, simply Because I love you

A different state of mind
A blessing of some kind
Ironing all flaws, simply
Because I love you
Yes I love you
How I love you
