

Tell me where you've been
Tell me where you're going
Invader
From a time unseen
You know they changed the rules

Who will listen to the things you say
When your words are only feathers in the wind

Crusader
No more good and bad
In this world of strangers
Don't wait now
Till there's no way back
To your world of fools

Who believes the mighty sword
When the truth appears like bullets from a gun
Where can you run

Who's ever gonna know your face
When you're only casting shadows on the wall
Who do you call
