

Mouldy Wood

Kayak

The ocean is the world
The sea the source of birth
I hear it's calling me

We've almost run aground
And take a look around
It's very clear to see

We're on a ship of mouldy wood
The wheel is broken and our course ain't good
So people understand there's no way back, all hands on deck
We gotta leave this sinking wreck

So members of the crew
Watch everything you do
Your Captain ain't no god

Don't trust the boatswain too
Cuz he's corrupt like you
Our ship's just all we've got

We're on a ship of mouldy wood
The wheel is broken and our course ain't good
deck
We gotta leave this sinking wreck.

Hey! Do you see what's happening do you understand the code: SOS
Save our souls, save the lives of our people
Our children, men and wives
