

My Heart Never Changed

Kayak

My heart never changed never will
My love
When everything's gone then there's still
My love
Your eyes, pretty eyes, cannot lie
My love
The things we once shared slowly died
My love

At night when others sleep
Oh, I'll try not to weep
To think of you
Find myself a way (to face the day)
As I'm still moved
When my eyes catch a glimpse of you I die somehow

I knew what was happening inside
My love
As there's not cause I'll ask no why
My love
I tried hard to put off the truth
My love
But now it seems all gone for good
Bye love

At night when others sleep
Oh, I'll try not to weep
To think of you
Find myself a way (to face the day)
As I'm still moved
When my eyes catch a glimpse of you I die somehow ...
