

What's in a Name

Kayak

Walls to protect me, ignore and neglect me
The struggle has ended
World you've succeeded, I'm really defeated
Could no longer stand it

Shouldn't have opened the door
Should have hidden the key
How was I to know you wouldn't like what you'd see?

Here in my bastion they answer my questions
Healing my inside
Truth is their weapon, yes, they'll make it happen
I'm gonna be alright.

You claim to be at the only right side of the wall
I'm feeling safe I don't care what this building is called
Cause what's in a name?

I'm taken care of by nurses we all love
Cherishing my brain
People don't laugh at me - I'm expected to be Totally insane

Pay me a visit someday won't you promise me that?
Don't you believe anybody that tells you I'm mad
Cause what's in a name?

Gonna get me a healthy mind
Gonna get me a piece of the world
I'm gonna get me a brand new brain
