

In the Morning

Keaton Henson

Empty pack of cigarettes by the bed you woke up and looked at me and you said "keaton is it morning yet?"
"no, we have a couple hours left; god knows what'll happen then."

There may be questions in your head as a new day is dawning like what things for us lie ahead but woman I will see you in the morning and woman I will see you in the morning

And I know every mark on your hand perhaps you'd like me more if I was still in a band but you know the crowds unsettle me these days I'd play for free baby, please don't look at me like that

There may be questions in your head
as a new day is dawning
like what things for us lie ahead
and woman I will see you in the morning
oh woman I will see you in the morning
oh woman I will see you in the morning morning