Final Moments

I see nothing As darkness envelops me

Light can not penetrate My reality is laid to rest Our eyes never meet (2x)

But I feel it's presence A piercing stare burns though me How long do I have to wait Before they're taken from me How long do I have to wait Before they're used to destroy me

Light can not penetrate My reality is laid to rest Our eyes never meet (2x)

Can this fatal bond Be dissolved Before I'm left in ruins It seems so hopeless But now at last

The final cut has been made My blood has been devoured I'm reduced to nothing Satisfied it moves on (2x) Keepsake
