

Too Deep

Kehlani

I argue with my side thing (Yuh)
Way more than my main thing (Yuh)
I thought we were just fucking
I can't fall in love for nothing
I can't lie to you for nothing
I made you who you wasn't
We was candy crushing

But this shit getting too deep (Yeah yeah)
Too deep (Yeah yeah)
Too deep for me
Getting too deep (Yeah yeah)
Too deep (Yeah yeah)
Too deep for me
This shit too deep

Too aggravated, too complicated
More, more, more, more complicated
Le-le-le-less communication
Less conversation, more confrontation
I'ma catch a case, no exoneration
I'ma go to jail, now I'm contemplating
I don't know what you see in me
I don't ever wanna be with you
I don't know why you pass for it
Wasting energy texting me
Text messages, thread messages
I don't wanna think less of you, no (No)
I just wanna see the best for you, yeah

But this shit getting too deep (Getting too)
Too deep (Deep, yeah)
Too deep for me (Getting too deep)
Getting too deep (Yeah yeah)
Too deep (Yeah yeah)
Too deep (Too deep) for me
This shit too deep

Too many steps, too many levels
Too many laps, too many hurdles
You don't wanna get hurt by me
I don't wanna be a crutch for ya
Too insane, too irritated
Too insufficient, too inconsistent
You just wanna talk, I don't wanna listen
Now I wanna talk, you don't wanna listen
I don't ever wanna lose you again
You don't ever wanna see me again
Say that I'm done, leave you alone
Mark you, then call you again (Again, again, again, again)
Again (Again, again)
Not like this usually

But this shit's getting too deep (Yeah yeah)
Too deep (Yeah yeah)
Too deep for me
Getting too deep (Just a little too)

Too deep (Little too deep)
Too deep for me (Just a little too deep)
This shit too deep
