

Kiss a Girl

Keith Urban

To kiss and tell
It's just not my style
But the night is young
And it's been awhile

And she broke my heart
Broke it right in two
And it's fixing time
But I'm feeling like I'm finally ready to Find, find somebody new

I wanna kiss a girl
I wanna hold her tight
And maybe make a little magic in the moonlight

Don't wanna go too far
Just to take it slow
But I shouldn't be lonely in this big ol' world
I wanna kiss a girl

It's that moment when
You start closing in
First you're holding back
Then surrendering

It can start a fire
Light up the sky
Such a simple thing
Do you wanna try?

Are you ready to
Say goodbye
To all these blues?

I wanna kiss a girl
I wanna hold her tight
And maybe make a little magic in the moonlight

Don't wanna go too far
Just to take it slow
But I shouldn't be lonely in this big ol' world
I wanna kiss a girl

'Cause, baby, tonight
It could turn into the rest of our lives
Oh yeah
Are you ready?
(Are you ready?)
Are you ready
(Are you ready)
To cross that line?
Put your lips on mine

Ooh, put your lips on mine, baby

Do you wanna try?
Are you ready to

Say goodbye
To all these blues?

I wanna kiss a girl
I wanna hold her tight
And maybe make a little magic, baby

Don't wanna go too far
Just to take it slow
Don't want you to be lonely
I shouldn't be lonely

I wanna kiss a girl
I wanna hold her tight
And maybe make a little magic in the moonlight
Just to take it slow
But I shouldn't be lonely in this big ol' world
I wanna kiss a girl

I said I wanna kiss a girl
Whoa ho, whoa ho
I wanna kiss a girl
I wanna hold her tight
I wanna make a little magic
Out under the moonlight

Ooh I wanna kiss you now
