Kiss a Girl

Keith Urban

To kiss and tell It's just not my style But the night is young And it's been awhile And she broke my heart Broke it right in two And it's fixing time But I'm feeling like I'm finally ready to Find, find somebody new I wanna kiss a girl I wanna hold her tight And maybe make a little magic in the moonlight Don't wanna go too far Just to take it slow But I shouldn't be lonely in this big ol' world I wanna kiss a girl It's that moment when You start closing in First you're holding back Then surrendering It can start a fire Light up the sky Such a simple thing Do you wanna try? Are you ready to Say goodbye To all these blues? I wanna kiss a girl I wanna hold her tight And maybe make a little magic in the moonlight Don't wanna go too far Just to take it slow But I shouldn't be lonely in this big ol' world I wanna kiss a girl 'Cause, baby, tonight It could turn into the rest of our lives Oh yeah Are you ready? (Are you ready?) Are you ready (Are you ready) To cross that line? Put your lips on mine Ooh, put your lips on mine, baby Do you wanna try? Are you ready to

Say goodbye To all these blues? I wanna kiss a girl I wanna hold her tight And maybe make a little magic, baby Don't wanna go too far Just to take it slow Don't want you to be lonely I shouldn't be lonely I wanna kiss a girl I wanna hold her tight And maybe make a little magic in the moonlight Don't wanna go too far Just to take it slow But I shouldn't be lonely in this big ol' world I wanna kiss a girl I said I wanna kiss a girl Whoa ho, whoa ho I wanna kiss a girl I wanna hold her tight I wanna make a little magic Out under the moonlight Ooh I wanna kiss you now
