

Do U Right

Kele

I'll bet you'll claim, I was insane
Digging me out, to your new friends
Maybe I was, to play your games
Gave you three whole years, for my pain
Why can't you leave it alone?

Didn't I do you right though?
Didn't I do you good?
You spent all of my money, honey

But I'm good
I'm still good
I'm still good

I bet you say, I was to blame
Do you think I'm blind, or just playin'
My friends done seen you running round this town
With some light skin boy all up in your arm
And I ask you, who's loving my baby?
Why can't you leave it alone?

And all the signs were there
That you were trifling with me
That you never had intentions from the start
See I can be elusive like
Those thirsty queens you know
I can pay you no mind
Like all the people you think you're above

Didn't I do you right though?
Didn't I do you good?
You spent all of my money, honey

But I'm good
But I'm good
I'm still good
