

At The End Of The Day

Kellie Coffey

Throw the covers off my head
Shake my body out of bed
Stretch my arms up
And look out the window

Sun is rising
Birds are singing
I am greeted by the gift of another new morning
And I know tonight as my head hits the pillow

I will ask myself as I look out the same window
At the end of the day
Did I laugh and dance enough
Did I tell my friends how much they really mean to me

At the end of the day
Did I really push myself
Or was I too afraid
To give my heart away

At the end of the day
I want to learn I want to live
take some big chance and just trust in my instincts and my intuition
If I win or if I lose

Any road that I choose
I will drive all the way
I want to know tonight as I fall fast asleep
I am one day closer

To where I want to be
At the end of the day
Did I laugh and dance enough
Did I tell my friends how much they really mean to me

At the end of the day
Did I really push myself
Or was I too afraid
To give my heart away

At the end of the day
To never forget what matters most
To never have to answer noooooo
When I ask myself

Did I laugh and dance enough
Did I tell my friends how much they really mean to me
At the end of the day
At the end of the day

Did I really push myself
Or was I too afraid
At the end of the day
