Calling Heaven - The Kelly Family
  (Capo 1)
A7M x02120
C/B x22010
Verse:
I'm waiting for my visit
                                                 A7
 They'll fill this room with flowers an' all
 They'll put on their biggest smile
But only for a while
If only I could help it
If only mercy'd be on my side
 I wouldn't have to die
         E A
And my family wouldn't cry
Bridge:
But the pain is getting far to strong
And medicine won't hold it for long
 It's getting closer
 So I'm waiting for someone to come
To come and take my soul where it belongs % \left\{ 1\right\} =\left\{ 1\right\} =
But no one's coming, no one
Chorus:
         Α
  So I'm calling heaven now
 I'm calling heaven now
Calling heaven's hand
                                                              D
So heaven help
Verse:
I try to find the answer
I try to find the reason why I
I'm leaving them all behind
But there's something I will find
```
