

Children Of Kosovo

The Kelly Family

I believe someone's out there who's gonna help me give a nameless child loving care I believe you are out there you're gonna help me give the children loving care
So much hate has turned to vengeance All the laughter has turned to crying
while the mothers lose their children from the war
I am hungry and I'm cold and I have no one to hold for my mother and my father are dead and gone where do I belong

This children of Kosovo are crying for a helping hand the children of Kosovo are dreaming of a peaceful land

They have beaten my older brother they have torn away my sister I'm afraid I want revenge Is there no other way

Let's hold our hands tightly together and think as one forever You and I can make a change for a better world no more war

This children of Kosovo...
