

Good Neighbor

The Kelly Family

Nobody tries to be a good neighbour,
Nobody tries any more!
Where are those good things they promised?
Everyone will fight their wars!

Remember the days, we needed everyone,
Everybody needed you and me.
If I needed salt, I knew where to go for it,
They knew where my door was, too.

Who is that jerk next door anyway?
He and his wife have warts.
Slam that door beer and my telly,
Alone I can play my darts.

Remeber the days...

Everybody wants to get without giving,
Everybody wants more and more!
Nobody tries to be a good neighbour,
Nobody tries any more.

Remeber the days...

Nobody tries, nobody tries,
Nobody tries any more.
Nobody tries to be a good neighbour,
Nobody tries any more!
