

Needy

Kelsea Ballerini

I like my Fridays all alone
With no reason to check my phone
My friends are out and I think nothin' of it
Content with myself, on my own

But now I look in your eyes every day, every night
I think about you all the time, yeah you got me like
Who am I?

If touchin' you's gonna make me easy
That's okay, cause I don't want space
If not sayin' enough's gonna make you leave me
I swear to God, I'll talk all day
You've never needed anybody, but now you need me
I was the same
But things have changed
I'm needy, I'm needy

Want every moment, that you're free
And then I miss you, when you leave
I bet your momma, probably, thinks I'm selfish
Look at what you've done to me

Now I look in your eyes every day, every night
I think about you all the time, yeah you got me like
Who am I?

If touchin' you's gonna make me easy
That's okay, cause I don't want space
If not sayin' enough's gonna make you leave me
I swear to God, I'll talk all day
You've never needed anybody, but now you need me
I was the same
But things have changed
I'm needy

I know how it sounds, but I don't, I don't care, no
I know how it sounds, but I don't, I don't care, no
I know how it sounds, but I don't, I don't care, no
I know how it sounds

If touchin' you's gonna make me easy
That's okay, cause I don't want space
If not sayin' enough's gonna make you leave me
I swear to God, I'll talk all day
You've never needed anybody, but now you need me
I was the same
But things have changed
I'm needy
