

Can't Stop Giving Love

Kem

You feeling the pressure
And I feel your attitude
We should be coming together
Something strange is taking over you
We all live our storied lives
We're on the world's stage

It's your right
It's your life
It's your problem
But love conquers hate, we can't wait

That's why you can't stop giving love, baby
You can't stop giving love is life
You can't stop giving love, darling
'Cause love will
Love will show you right

Oh baby
Aww darling
Love will show you right
Ooh alright
Love, love, love

You think you're so much smarter
Then please tell me why
'Cause you making it harder and harder
To just keep living right
Baby, take your religion, 'cause it ain't no friend of mine
Sitting here claiming the good Lord's name
Without love it ain't bonafide

That's why you can't stop giving love, baby
You can't stop giving love is life
You can't stop giving love hey
'Cause love will
Love will show you right
Baby, ooh girl
Love, love, love will show you
Oh darling, yeah
Love will show you right

If love made ya
Then love is life
Good love'll save ya baby
Love is the light of the world
Keep living and stay woke
Love is the only thing giving you hope

That's why you can't stop giving love
You can't stop giving love is life
You can't stop giving love
You can't stop giving love
Can't stop giving love

Can't stop giving love
You can't stop giving love
Can't stop giving love
You can't stop giving
You can't stop giving
