

Do You Feel Alright

Ken Hensley

Do you feel alright ...

One in the morning
I'm always on the run
And still it seems I never get far

The road's never ending
It looks like I've just begun
And life's just a game and
I'm playing my part

When will I see you
I'm longing to hold you
Just the sound of your voice
Will help me through
I'm longing to hold you
Just the sound of your voice
Will help me through

Do you feel alright ...

One in the morning
I'm always on the run
And still it seems I never get far

The road's never ending
It looks like I've just begun
And life's just a game and
I'm playing my part

Do you feel alright ...
