

Right Here, Right Now

Ken Hensley

I got no time for yesterday
For living in the past
Too many things I didn't say
Questions I didn't ask

Don't give a damn about tomorrow
The trouble it can bring
I'm gonna stay right here, right now
Where my whole world can sing

I will find my way somehow
(To live for here and now)
Tomorrow's there for every man
(But right now is in my hand)
Lord, please don't let my poor heart stray
(As I give you my today)

I don't care if you don't run with me
Your life is yours and mine is mine
My guardian spirit's protecting me
You only waste my time

My choice is mine, no turning back
Only myself to blame
No phantom voices haunting me
Alone, I'll take the pain
